Personal and Professional Development

PERSONAL PROFILE (Year 1)

Name:

Date:

Guidance notes for completion:

This personal profile will be used as a self-development tool in the Interactive Processes Module.

It is your responsibility to evaluate yourself, using this form, at the start of the module then re-evaluate yourself at the mid-point of the module and again using a different coloured pen at the end of the module. A second Self-development Strategies proforma has been provided for you to up-date your goals and strategies.

Following this you will be expected to engage in reflective dialogue with your Professional Development Tutor throughout the year and this will contribute to your professional development portfolio.

Personal and Professional Development

Personal profile - self

Guidance notes for completion:

It is your responsibility to evaluate yourself, at the start of the module, by using this proforma and with a coloured pen ticking the box which conveys the way you feel about yourself, at the moment. Then re-evaluate yourself at the mid-point of the module using a different coloured pen. Once completed, plot the changes in the way you feel about your interpersonal skills. At the end of the proforma there is space for you to identify your self-development needs and practical strategies. Complete this section when you have had time to reflect on your personal goals.
