“Don’t you think I’m a jolly old man?”

A Folk Play Scripts Explorer Case Study

<http://www.mastermummers.org/scripts/explorer.htm>

Investigating a line from Beelzebub's speech

In comes our old Belzebub

Over my shoulder I carry a club

In my hand a dripping pan

Don't you think I'm a jolly old man?

If you don't, I do.

Guysers' play from Underwood, Notts.

Near misses

Significant variations

Displaying non-matching variants of the line type shows many near misses as well as some radically different variations.

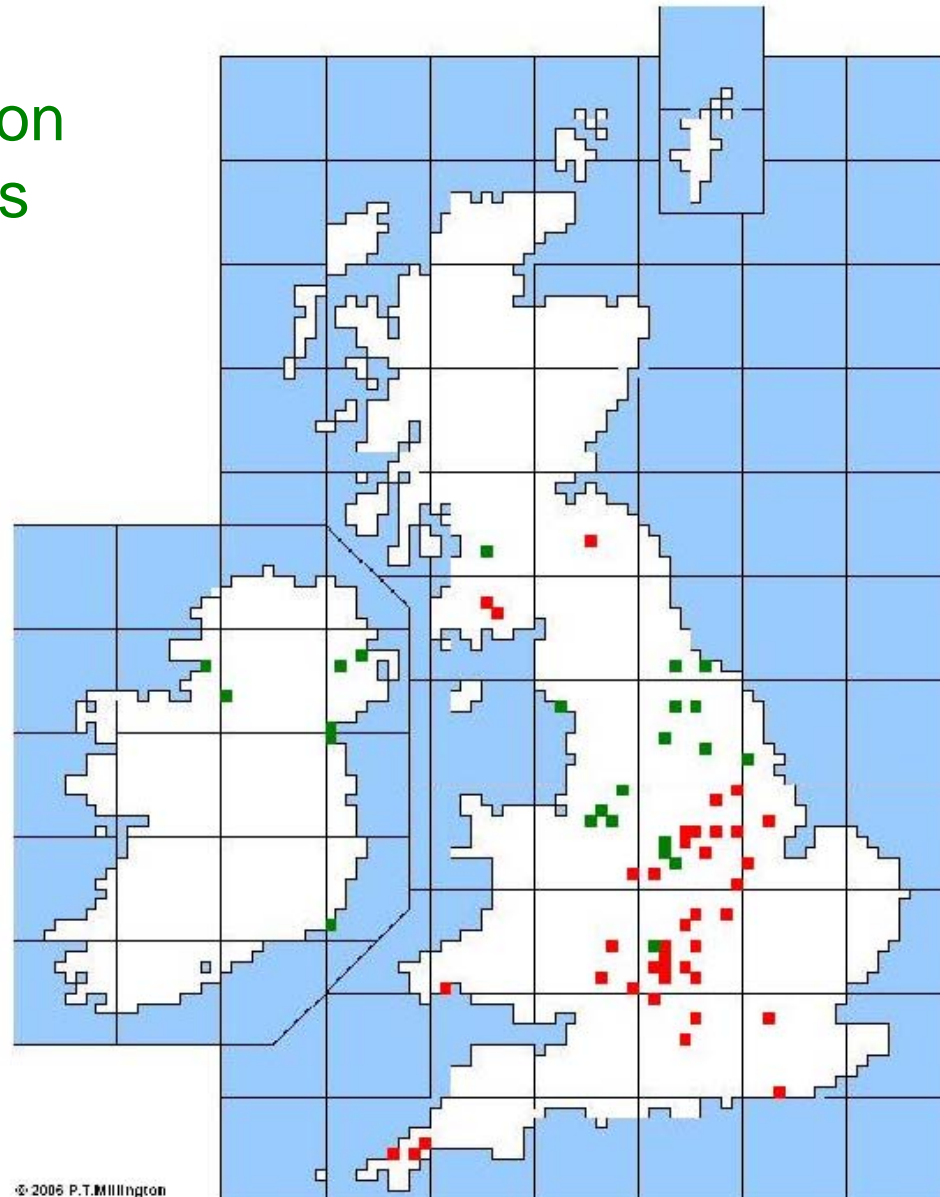

It is generally more helpful to search using single words, short phrases, or strings of characters.

Std.ID	Sample Result	Plays with Fragment		Plays Without		All Variants
164	and tis a jolly old christmas time	1 (Map)	+	35 (Map)	=	36 (Map)

4920	come all you jolly mummers	2 (Map)	+	-	=	2 (Map)

Here, searching for “jolly” reveals two related line types with subtly different meanings.

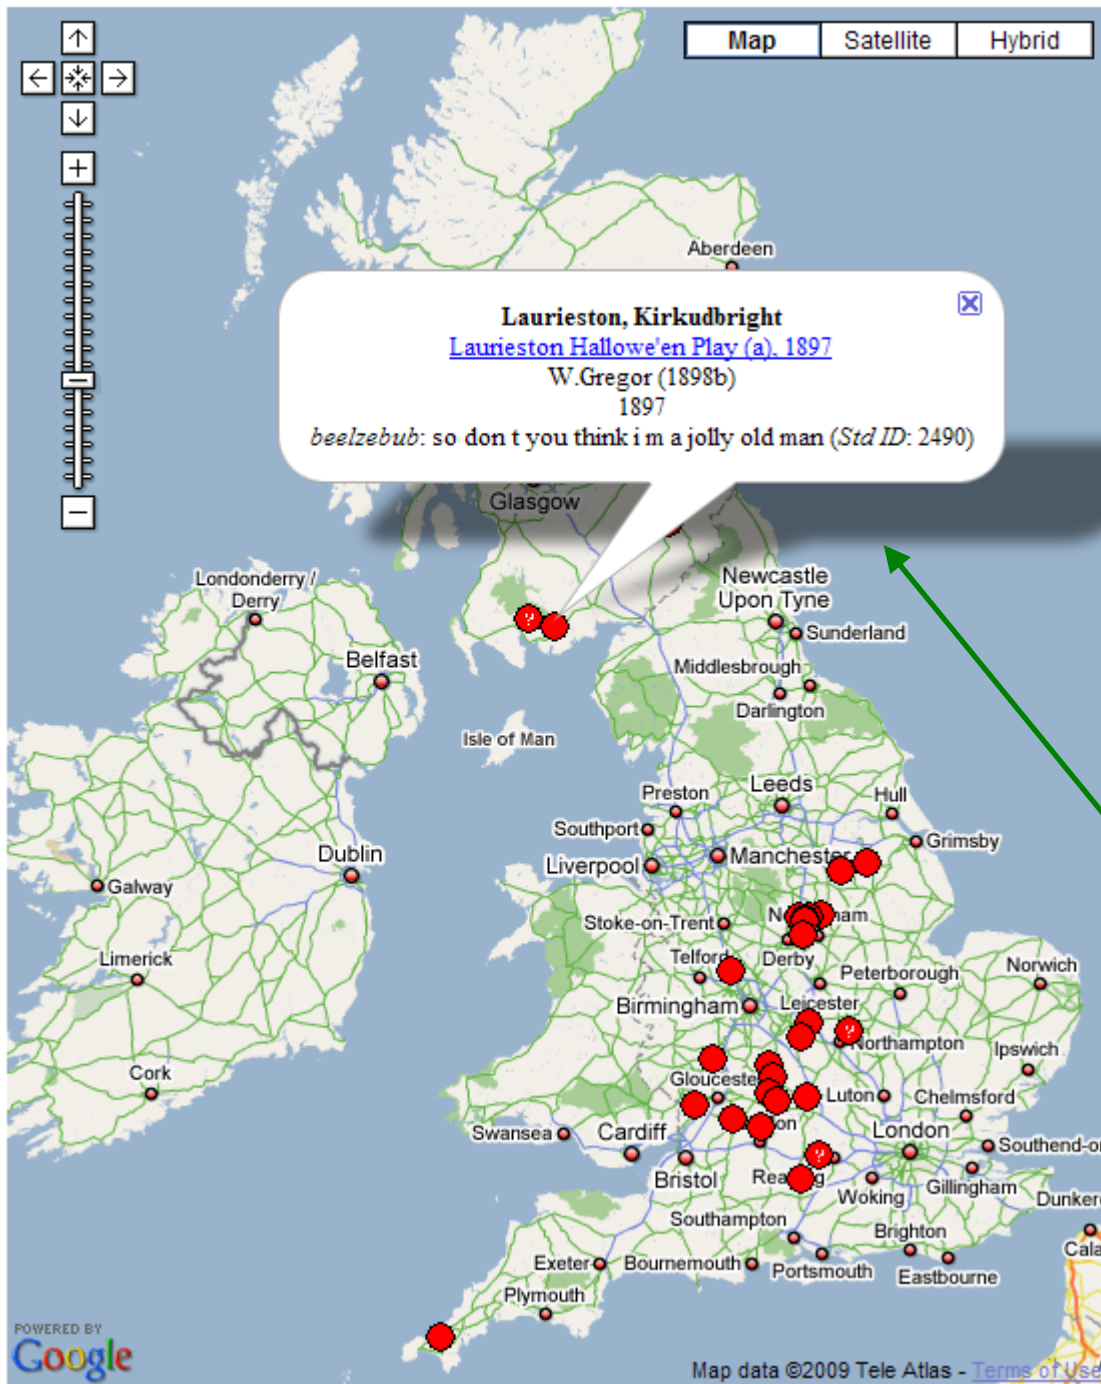

Some non-matching variants still remain

A quick outline distribution map of the two line types shows discrete zoning which suggests that the variation is significant.
